Alvaston Hall is that little bit different to the other historic hotels having its own special atmosphere. It has a unique Cabaret Diner where following dinner the show unfolds before your eyes from the comfort of your dining seat. Alvaston does not have such huge grounds but does have its own 9 hole golf course.

At the top of the drive you can catch a local bus into the centre of historical Nantwich just minutes away or why not enjoy a pleasant stroll into town?

This departure also includes an excursion to Chester during the Christmas Market period, enjoy 70 chalets offering lots of Christmas gifts. Sunday, I suggest a morning visit to Nantwich which will enable you to watch the afternoon pantomime back at Alvaston.
