Cornwall 14th April 24

The Eden Project, the Lost Gardens of Heligan

We have a superb itinerary

Known as the 'Grande Dame of Falmouth', The Falmouth Hotel first opened in 1865 as Isambard Kingdom Brunel expanded the Great Western Railway into Cornwall. Its castle-like Victorian architecture, spacious interiors, fantastic seafront location, and award-winning food have ensured its place as one of Cornwall's best-known hotels.

Room Features: traditional luxury at its best with classic décor and furnishings.

Highlights of our itinerary

There is so much to see & do the itinerary is not quite finished but the below are definitely included:-

- * The Eden Project an ever changing amazing indoor & outdoor space located in a disused china clay pit.
- * Llanhydrock House & Gardens NT often referred to the best NT in Cornwall.
- * Lost Gardens of Heligan are botanical gardens covering over 200 acres once lost to brambles.
- * Trelissick NT a welcoming house & garden with maritime view. From here we take the ferry back to Falmouth.
- * Mount St Michael NT, Penzance & the Southern tip of Cornwall
