DORDRECHT

Christmas Market Weekend

Saturday: Tonight we cross the North Sea on P&O North Sea ferries from Hull to Rotterdam.

There is plenty of live entertainment on board something to suit everyone's taste. You could even visit the cinema. The shops on board offer a great opportunity to stock up on drinks e.g 6 bottles of nice wine for £18 or gifts as there is a wide range of perfumes & toiletries on board including special gift packs ideal for Christmas presents. If you require a bulk order of wine or beer order tonight to collect on the return to King George Dock in the terminal on Monday and wheel on a trolley.

Sunday : We travel to Dordrecht for a great day out. They have the largest Christmas Market in Holland plus you will find museums giving reduced entry, live entertainment. Don't miss the fabulous the Nativity scene, the grand church it is really something special plus meander the canals and see the boats moored in the marina. Tonight : We are back on board for our sailing back to Hull.

Monday : arriving around 7.30 am means you can even make it into work today if necessary.
