DAY 2
MONDAY
6th July 2026

PONTA DELGADA

Furnas & Lagoa Do Fogo Lakes

This morning head south towards the valley of Furnas. En-route stop at the view point at Pisão at Água de Pau village, which overlooks the sea and the small village of Caloura, before continuing to Vila Franca Do Campo, the first capital of the island. Because of its thermal springs, Furnas Valley is considered one of the biggest hydropolis in the world. Visit the Furnas lagoon nearby and taste the traditional cozido. Using the volcanic heat, the Azoreans cook meat and vegetables in a large pot buried in the ground for several hours. After lunch visit the botanical garden, see the many geysers and mineral water springs and perhaps bathe in a natural hot water swimming pool.

Remember to bring your bathing costume (an old one preferably as the water can turn it brown) and towel! Visit a tea plantation for a tasting and see the old machinery used for processing the tea. Travelling via the mountain road reach Lagoa do Fogo (Fire Lake), a lake in the interior of a crater of an extinct volcano and the highest point above sea level on Sao Miguel Island. Transfer back to Ponta Delgada and overnight there.

*Please note that order of the tour may be reversed depending on weather conditions.

Meal notes : Traditional cozido Lunch at Tony's

Board the ferry for the four mile boat crossing to the island of Faial, which takes approximately 30 minutes.

You will be met at the port and transferred to your hotel.

On arrival check-in at your hotel (depending on whether rooms are available for early check-in) in Horta, the island's lively capital and arguably the most eye-catching town in the Azores. It is a haven for yachtsmen and whale watchers, filled with colourful yachts which stop here during voyages across the North Atlantic. The afternoon is at leisure.

Hotel Do Canal, 2 Nights, Standard Room, Bed & Breakfast

Meal notes : Lunch at Restaurant Atletico

MONDAY
13th July 2026

HORTA

Full Day Faial Island Tour

Awake in Horta and start a full day tour of Faial, also known as the Blue Island. Faial was the last location of major volcanic activity in the Azores, when Capelinhos erupted in 1957, adding 1km of land to the island. This area, resembling the surface of the moon, is in stark contrast to the hydrangea-lined roads of the rest of the island. After lunch, pass by Caldeira, the highest point on the island, and on the way to Horta stop in the Espalamaca for a view over Horta. Stop at a typical cheese factory – the Azoreans are very proud of their dairy so a tasting session here is a must. The cows in the Azores certainly have enough to eat with its lush green pastures and temperate climate, they are kept outside all year.

Meal notes : Lunch at a local restaurant
