It is wonderful that we have now increased our team & are now the 3 musketeers. Susan has settled in quickly and playing her part in the team. The benefit has not hit yet as we are still battling with our backlog of admin along with those dreaded changes which thankfully are seeming to become less. However, you will see that I have managed this week to add a few new special departures to this publication.

TTG top 50, this year we are shortlisted for top Yorkshire Agency & also Top Touring & Adventure Agency, the latter would be lovely to win as we pride ourselves on being different and are much smaller than the other agents we are up against and our business model is intrigued to the judges. ### Your itinerary

DAY 1 - Arrival in Cyprus Arrive at the airport for your flight and transfer to your hotel.

DAY 2 - Kyrenia Explore the delightful port town of Kyrenia, in the company of your tour manager. Here, the natural, horseshoe-shaped harbour looks out over pristine azure waters, flanked by shops and cafés and all watched over by an imposing medieval castle. It's a picture-perfect scene mostly unchanged down the years despite the trappings of modernity. Within the massive castle walls you'll find a fascinating shipwreck museum, and a gallery of archaeological finds from the surrounding area. This afternoon, return to your hotel to relax, or explore the town under your own steam. Why not visit a museum or gallery, or take a seat in one of the harbour's delightful fish restaurants - perfect places in which to pass the hours?

DAY 3 - A fascinating day awaits, today, as you journey to the island's east. Your first call is at the monastery of St Barnabas, where the side chapel of the twin-domed church is said to hold the tomb of the early Christian martyr. This is followed by a visit to the extraordinary Roman ruins of the ancient coastal city of Salamis. The remains, which include colonnades, a magnificent theatre and a bathhouse, were part of a much larger settlement that still lies submerged beneath the blue waters and sand dunes.

You'll then head to the fascinating city of Famagusta, once one of the world's richest, and today a living museum. Here ruined churches, the Lala Mustapha Pasha mosque (once the city cathedral) and Venetian Palace rise in amongst the city's modern cafes and shops, as described in Victoria Hislop's novel, The Sunrise. Most unforgettable is the Ghost City of Varosha, left abandoned since 1974, and a poignant reminder of the island's past troubles.

Our hotel

As this is a single-centre tour, we stay at the same hotel in Kyrenia for seven nights, with daily breakfast & Dinner Pia Bella, Kyrenia ★★★★★

DAY 4 - Nicosia The highlight of today's fascinating included excursion will be your visit to historic Nicosia, capital of Cyprus for more than 12 centuries, and separated into a Turkish north and Greek south since the Green Line was first drawn, in 1963. Enjoy a guided tour of Lefkosa, the northern territory, where highlights include the ancient Buyuk Han, once the largest caravanserai (roadside inn) on Cyprus, the colourful covered bazaar and the cathedral/mosque of Selimiye/St Sophia. After crossing into the southern territory, Lefkosa, you'll have free time to explore the narrow streets that shelter within the Venetian walls of the old town. Why not visit tiny St John's Cathedral or one of the various museums of Cypriot history and culture before we return to Kyrenia?

DAY 5 - Guzelyurt, Soli & Lefke excursion to the green, citrus-grove surrounded town of Guzelyurt. The town's name means "beautiful place" in Turkish, and you'll have time to see its archaeology museum and church of Agios Mamas. The enjoyable day will also include visits to the fascinating excavated city of Soli, with its Roman and Byzantine remains, and to the Green Line border town of Lefke, with its former copper mines and citrus groves.

DAY 6 - Today's included tour heads first towards the magnificent mountain-top castle of St Hilarion, with its preserved fortifications and spectacular views of the coastline and the surrounding Five Finger Mountains. In the foothills below lies the beautiful village of Bellapais. Set beneath the preserved ruins of its Gothic abbey, this idyllic spot was celebrated writer Lawrence Durrell's home for three years to, and he chronicled his stay here in his novel Bitter Lemons. Wander the ruins of the Abbey, stepping back in time as you soak up its unique atmosphere, then return to Kyrenia for the rest of the day.

DAY 7 - the unspoilt Karpaz, or Karpasia, Peninsula, a rugged spit of land fringed by some of the island's most stunning beaches and bluest waters. Dotted with ancient villages and home to herds of wild donkeys, the peninsula is also where the remote monastery and shrine of Apostos Andreas boasts a famous 'holy well'. As well as a visit to an ancient olive press, today will include a chance to enjoy a dip (weather permitting) in the sea at one of the island's finest bathing spots.

You'll return to Kyrenia at the end of a wonderful day, to enjoy a final dinner at the hotel.

DAY 8 - Return flight Transfer to the airport for our flight home. (B)

Northern Lights in a stunning location...

I certainly banished those January Blues last week & you can too in 2025.

What an exhilarating adventure to start the year, 350km above the Arctic Circle. Stunning winter landscapes and the cleanest crispest air in the world giving the best possible opportunity to see the Northern Lights.

Departing Humberside airport on a dedicated charter flight, we flew 3 hours direct to Enontiokeo. This 5 day holiday is very inclusive, I only spent 10 Euros although many guests did bring home souvenirs unique to the area.

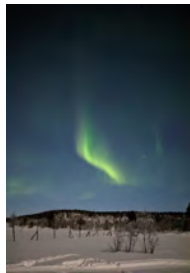

This is an action packed break ticking off those bucket list must do's. Not only did we enjoy thrilling times we also learn't about the history and culture of the area and how the small communities survive.

Our first activity was to a Reindeer camp and a sleigh safari. Following a talk about the reindeer and way of life we climbed aboard our sleighs and were ready for off. I was alone in the first sleigh and spent the whole time laughing but did get a little scared when the reindeer behind almost joined me in my sleigh! We then enjoyed taking the reins for our own sleigh ride around a small circuit totally in control.

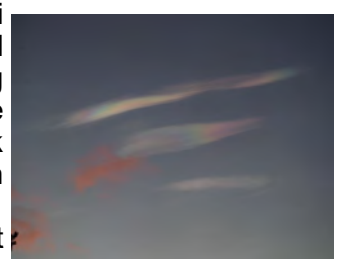

A big wow for me was mushing my own sled with 5 Alaskan Huskies. The howling and excitement of the dogs before we set off was piercing to the ear drums but once on our way they were happy. This is an activity I could have done all day. Check out the videos on our face book page & enjoy the action and noise!

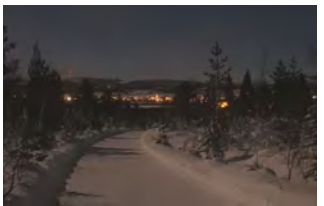

For many the highlight was the Northern Lights Snowmobile safari where in the dark of night we wended our way through the forest and out into the middle of a frozen lake and watched the lights dancing around. Truly magical, a fantastic sight to see in the dark skies of the wilderness. For those without a driving license or wishing to sit back and not worry about controlling the machine you could ride in a sleigh behind our guide.

We also had a treat during the day of the Mother of Peel Clouds not often seen.

The next day we trekked through the deep snow in the forest wearing snow shoes. Our introduction to this sport allowed us to pad gently through the peaceful forest spotting tracks left by the Arctic hare.

Two nights of the holiday we walked up Davvi Hill in search of the lights and they did come, for those not wanting to have extra exercise the lights were visible just outside the hotel as shown in the top photo above the cabins. From the hill we had a lovely view of the Swedish part of the town as shown in the photo. The river acts as the border between both countries. There is a bigger population in Sweden and only 100 inhabitants on the Finnish side of town.

All food is included breakfast, lunch, dinner plus late night soup. It is very hearty fare offering something for everyone to enjoy, no one would be hungry and you could just help yourself to as much as you wanted.

As for clothing you do need your own undergarments hats, gloves & scarves but outer thermal suits and boots are supplied on arrival included in your package. It is a very dry cold and I have to say I have been colder in our damp air since returning!

I must point out this a grown up holiday for older teenagers upwards. I believe that our eldest traveller this year was mid 80's and everyone had a fabulous time.

Children have their opportunity to visit Lapland before Christmas complete with activities along with a visit to Santa ~ ask for details.
