MARIONOWENTRAVEL

ELEGANT CABINS Arranged across three decks, with all cabins outward-facing for you to enjoy the views. 23 cabins have large picture windows (with tinted glass for extra privacy) and two cabins offer double portholes. All cabins boasts en-suite shower, toilet, and washbasin & tantalise your senses with Highland Soap Company natural toiletries in eco-friendly, refillable dispensers. There is ample wardrobe space, bedside drawers, a dressing table, a safe for valuables, hairdryer, satellite TV and internal telephone.

Each deck is named after famous Scots:

THOMAS TELFORD DECK Thomas Telford regarded as one of Scotland's finest ever engineers and built many of the roads and bridges that you may see on your Scottish travels. The Thomas Telford Deck hosts the Sir Walter Scott Lounge and Bar as well as the David Livingstone Lounge and Library. There are two viewing terraces forward & aft.

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL DECK When telephoning the other side of the world, you have Alexander Graham Bell to thank, as this Scottish entrepreneur invented the telephone in 1876. The Alexander Graham Bell Deck hosts the reception area and the Robert Louis Stevenson Restaurant.

CATEGORY 3 CABINS ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL DECK £2995

6 twin bedded superior cabins situated on the Alexander Graham Bell Deck. All have picture windows to enjoy Scotland's beautiful scenery.

DAVID ROBERTS DECK Well-known Scottish painter, David Roberts, lends his name to this deck. Famous for work such as The Houses of Parliament from Millbank and the travelogue, The Holy Land, Syria, Idumea, Arabia, Egypt, and Nubia. Some of his lithographs are present on Lord of the Glens.

CATEGORY 2 CABINS DAVID ROBERTS DECK £2695

4 twin bedded cabins (201, 202, 209 & 210) & 4 double bedded cabins (211, 212, 219 & 218) all having picture windows.

CATEGORY 3 CABINS DAVID ROBERTS DECK £2995

8 twin bedded superior cabins on the David Roberts Deck. These cabins are the largest on the ship and all have large picture windows.

JAMES WATT DECK The James Watt Deck is named after the illustrious Scottish engineer and inventor whose work with steam engines brought about huge change to the world during the industrial revolution. Cabins on this deck have portholes, which add to the seafaring experience.

CATEGORY 1 CABIN JAMES WATT DECK £2355

These cabins are located on the James Watt Deck which is two decks below the reception level. Each cabin has twin beds and two large portholes.

Please note that the Lord of the Glens does not have a lift on board.

EXCLUSIVE
DEPARTURE

Golden Temple, Amritsar

Join Marion in INDIA - SIKHS & EXILES

This rewarding journey takes you off the beaten track to Himalayan hill stations, heritage hotels, and the home of the Dalai Lama; revealing the history of Sikhism, Buddhism and Christianity

INTRODUCTION

This journey to places of pilgrimage, ancient temples, and the enthralling enclave of Tibetan exiles is an exclusive private group departure for Marion Owen Travel. Explore northern India; witness sacred ceremonies and hypnotic religious chants; as you discover the centuries and sanctuaries of the north, amid the landscapes of the Himalayan foothills. Sikhism is relatively young, founded in the 15th-century and focused on Amritsar and the fabled Golden Temple, here the Palki ritual takes the Guru Granth Sahib book 'to bed' each night, and back to the temple every morning, symbolically treating the holy book as a human teacher. With the largest Tibetan temple outside Tibet, Dharamsala means 'pilgrim's rest'. This beautiful home of Buddhism retains its ethereal spirituality, home to the Dalai Lama where the monastery and temple are enveloped in peace and serenity.

The 'Queen of the Hill Stations', Shimla has evolved from its 'white paradise' colonial past, when only high-ranking Indians were allowed on its mall, to a place where Hindus visit the Christian church, and children eat chapatis in old style tea rooms. In Delhi you can experience quiet and palatial serenity which proudly sits alongside the energetic colourful city that offers a hectic vibrancy only matched by the hospitality of the locals as they welcome you to their wonderful capital.

ITINERARY

DAY 1 Fly from London Heathrow to Amritsar via Delhi.

DAY 2 Afternoon arrival. Transfer to the boutique hotel Ranjit Vilas for two nights. Afternoon free, evening cooking demonstration at the hotel. (D)

DAY 3 Visit the Golden Temple, one of the most sacred Sikh pilgrim sites, and explore volunteer's kitchen, continue to Jallianwala Bagh, scene of the 1919 massacre. Optional early evening Wagah Border ceremony at the India/Pakistan border Later, attend the Palki ceremony at the Golden Temple. (B)

DAY 4 Drive to Dharamsala visiting Masur Rock Cut Temples en route. Dharamsala, a Tibetan style market town is set into the hillside, Tibetan spiritual leader, the Dalai Lama, is based uphill in pine forested, McLeod Ganj. Two nights at the Clouds End Villa. (B, L, D)

DAY 5 Visit the Tibetan monastery, museum and Norbulingka, which preserves Tibetan arts and crafts. Afternoon village walk with fine views of the Dhauladhar Mountains. (B, D)

DAY 6 Visit Kangra Fort and Museum. Travel to Pragpur village. Enjoy an evening village walk. Overnight at the heritage hotel Judge's Court, a country manor built for Justice Sir Jai Lal. (B, D)

DAY 7 Drive to Shimla, stopping en route at Garli heritage village. Three nights at the famous 5-star Oberoi Cecil Hotel, a

25-minute walk from The Mall. (B)

DAY 8 Morning tour of Shimla including the Vice Regal Lodge, museum and the Mall. Enjoy high tea at Chapslee House, one of the oldest surviving residences of Shimla, perhaps meet a family member. (B)

DAY 9 The full day is at leisure. Strung out along a ridge with steep forested hillsides falling away in all directions, the Himachal capital is one of India's most popular hill resorts. Traffic is prohibited so strolling is the way to explore. The Mall runs just below the spine of the hill and further south, maze-like alleyways and stairways of the bazaar cascade down to Cart Road. Alternately, join an optional tour; enjoy a trail walk or visit the the Sanath Art Gallery for high tea. (B)

DAY 10 Shimla was officially the summer capital of the British Empire. To provide access, the Kalka-Shimla narrow-gauge train was created in November 1903. Lord Curzon enjoyed the first train ride; it has been running daily since. Take a ride on the Himalayan Queen Toy Train, then travel by road to join the Shatabdi Express to Delhi, light meal on board. Two nights at 5-star Suryaa Hotel. (B, D)

DAY 11 This morning visit Bangla Sahib Gurudwara, the Red Fort and Agrasen Ki Baoli stepwell. Afternoon at leisure. This evening, enjoy a cooking demonstration followed by a farewell dinner. (B, D)

DAY 12 Transfer to Delhi airport for your return flight to London. (B)

"We saw things, did things and experienced things that were off the usual track and were such a delight and joy"
